Bifacial solar panel assembly in Mumbai India

Overview

What is a bifacial solar panel?

A bifacial solar panel is a two-faced energy plant that generates electricity using sunlight on both, front and rear side. Unlike traditional solar panel, a bifacial solar module has two faces to expose to sunlight. Both sides of the bifacial are equipped with solar cells, usually monocrystalline. Though polycrystalline is also used.

What is bifacial solar panel price in India?

Why are bifacial solar panels better than conventional solar panels?

Bifacial are frequently more resilient since both sides are UV-resistant, and when the bifacial solar panel is structurally sound, the risk of potentially induced deterioration (PID) gets diminished. The bifacial solar panels are different from the conventional panels as they come with solar cells equipped on both sides.

Can a bifacial solar panel generate electricity from both sides?

A bifacial panel can generate power from both sides, boosting overall electricity production, available in N-Type TOPCon & N-Type HJT. Bifacial are frequently more resilient since both sides are UV-resistant, and when the bifacial solar panel is structurally sound, the risk of potentially induced deterioration (PID) gets diminished.
