Which European site has the most energy batteries

Overview

Which European battery market is most attractive?

Italy is the most attractive European battery market, Aurora Energy Research has claimed, followed by Great Britain and Germany. The three leading markets are identified in the fourth edition of Aurora's European Battery Markets Attractiveness Report, published March 3, 2025.

How many battery energy storage systems were installed in Europe in 2024?

21.9 GWh of battery energy storage systems (BESS) was installed in Europe in 2024, marking the eleventh consecutive year of record breaking-installations, and bringing Europe's total battery fleet to 61.1 GWh. However, the annual growth rate slowed down to 15% in 2024, after three consecutive years of doubling newly added capacity.

Which European battery market will reach 55 GW by 2030?

The fourth edition battery markets report also predicts Europe's grid-scale BESS fleet will reach 55 GW by 2030. From ESS News Italy is the most attractive European battery market, Aurora Energy Research has claimed, followed by Great Britain and Germany.

Where is the battery storage market in Europe?

*In the European Market Outlook for Battery Storage, the Europe region refers to the EU-27 + the UK + Switzerland. Spain analysis from the report Last year Spain installed less than 250 MWh of batteries (14th biggest market in Europe 2024).

Why is battery storage so important in Europe?

The recent electricity outage in the Iberian Peninsula is a stark reminder of why this is important." The BESS market in Europe is set to grow faster in the next years, although not at the levels required. In the most-likely scenario for 2025, 29.7 GWh of battery storage will be installed in Europe, representing a 36% annual growth.

Which country has the largest battery market in the world?

Germany maintained its leading role despite a drop in residential installations and the slow uptake of larger batteries. Italy's home battery segment also decreased, but the large-scale segment's capacity surge brought the market to new heights.
